THE CHESAPEAKE YOUTH SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

provides young musicians extensive ensemble training under the direction of esteemed professional conductors and coaches.

Thousands of young people have participated in the CYSO's exciting programs, and many alumni have successful careers as musicians, while others have cultivated a life-long love of music.

Opportunities to tour internationally in countries such as Canada, France, Italy and Ireland

Financial aid is available (students are never turned away for financial reasons)

CYSO students have the opportunity to regularly perform works from standard classical repertoire as well as explore new music, delivering world premieres. Students have opportunities to perform in venues across the region and internationally—touring most recently in Quebec, Russia, France, Italy, Ireland and the Czech Republic.
